

Max Bettzüche

Associate

Ballindamm 3
20099 Hamburg, Germany

T +49 40 468 995 224
F +49 40 468 995 221
E max.bettzueche@mannerdisputes.com

mannerdisputes.com

Max Bettzüche specialises in dispute resolution, litigation and arbitration. He further acts as secretary to arbitral tribunals.

Before joining Manner Disputes, Max Bettzüche completed his legal clerkship (Second State Examination in Law, Hamburg 2024) as one of the best in his year in the federal states of Hamburg, Bremen and Schleswig-Holstein.

He spent his legal clerkship in the dispute resolution, litigation and arbitration department of the law firm Gleiss Lutz Hootz Hirsch PartmbB Rechtsanwälte, at the Hamburg Regional Court, at the Hamburg Investment and Development Bank (IFB) and at the litigation funder Deminor Litigation Funding.

Max Bettzüche was as a research assistant in a law firm specialising in distribution and commercial law and assisted, inter alia, in the drafting of complex contracts.

Max Bettzüche studied law at the University of Hamburg (First State Examination in Law, 2022).

As a member of the Refugee Law Clinic, he already gained experience in legal counselling during his studies. As a participant in the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot, Max Bettzüche won awards for one of the best claimant and respondent memoranda. He then coached the team from the University of Hamburg, which reached the final of the competition.

In addition, Max Bettzüche was a member of the board of the Vis Moot Alumni Universität Hamburg e.V. for two years.

His working languages are English and German.